Dear chamber music enthusiasts,

The internationally praised Merel Quartet is stirring up the European festival scene with their yearly weekend of music-making – and not just in any run-of-the-mill concert hall. The exquisite Belle Époque Kursaal, nestled in the magnificent alpine landscape of Engelberg, provides a distinctive backdrop uniquely suited to the intentions of the festival.

Zwischentöne Chamber Music Festival vision

- Renowned musicians join the Merel Quartet in chamber music-making of the highest quality.
- The program of the Chamber Music Festival “Zwischentöne” follows a specific theme and allows you to enjoy well-known favorites from the classical and romantic periods as well as the chance to discover new music and little-known gems.
- Our Young Festival Artist program offers a valuable platform for budding talents from the region.
- One new work of a Swiss composer premiered each year.
- For interested Association friends we offer special events such as an open workshop-rehearsal where you can learn more about our process, or a pre-festival concert with apero.
- Aperos and the Festival Dinner provide unique opportunities for conversations with the artists.
- Audience and musicians stay in our Festival Partner-Hotels, furthering a community atmosphere.

“Curating our own festival allows us to work with wonderful musicians from around world and create programs outside the realm of a normal concert series.”

– Rafael Rosenfeld

The first edition of “Zwischentöne” in 2015 was exemplary. Illustrious guests included Alfred Brendel and Ruth Ziesak, and works by Schubert, Beethoven, Dvorak, Schönberg and Kurtág made for an exceptional and diverse program. In following years, the festival has secured its position as an important part of Engelberg's cultural calendar, hosting internationally renowned musicians such as Ian Bostridge, Juliane Banse, Denes Varjon, Saskia Giorgini, Yura Lee, Mariana Shirinyan and many more. Help us to ensure the future of this extraordinary festival by becoming a member of the Zwischentöne Friends Association ("Freunde des Kammermusikfestivals Zwischentöne").
